ASSUMPTION Catholic School

October 2nd, 2020

Dear Families,

Last Sunday, Father Emmanuel was formally installed as the Pastor of the Tri-Parishes. I was fortunate enough to attend Mass and it was wonderful. The visiting priests all commented to Father how impressed they were with our musicians and readers. Thank you, parents, for your help in preparing your children. Father Mano, our Dean from St. Joe's in Menomonie, gave the homily that night based on the Gospel reading Matthew 16:13-20; Jesus asked His disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" His homily stuck with me for these reasons:

- How do you want people to describe you?
- Do your words and actions reflect the person you want to be?
- Jesus knows everyone by name, but have you established a relationship with Him to let Him really know you?

We are so blessed to have Father Emmanuel as our Pastor, as he educates, reminds and challenges our students each week with questions similar to above with one main objective – to know, love and serve our Lord.
