ASSUMPTION Catholic School

November 16th, 2018

Dear Families,

Thanksgiving is a wonderful time to gather with family and friends and reflect on our blessings. Many of us experience renewed hope and faith during the Thanksgiving holiday because we turn our eyes onto what is most important. What would the world be like if we each spent time everyday giving thanks? How could God grow our faith and trust if we lived a life of thanks through all seasons and not just Thanksgiving time? If you think about it, when our hearts are filled with gratitude, there is little room to worry or complain.

I pray we all are blessed with a grateful heart, that we see Jesus in each other and in all of His creations. God Bless you and Happy Thanksgiving.

ADVENT:

A reminder: Join our parish for the Best Advent Ever, a free email program that will help you slow down and focus on what matters most during the busy holiday season, details are enclosed.

BONN FAMILY THANK YOU:

"I wish I could write a personal thank you to each and every one of you to tell you how appreciative my family and I are for your prayers and generosity shown to us over the past month. The baskets donated to the benefit were beautiful; the attendance and well wishes given were overwhelming. Words cannot express our gratitude, thank you to all!" Mrs. Bonn

BRAINS AND BRAWN NEWS:

- The Brains Team will be holding an informational meeting for all 7th and 8th Grade students who are thinking about joining the team for the Brains & Brawn Tournament at the end of January. Please discuss with your child(ren) over Thanksgiving break their interest in competing with the team and encourage them to join us for the meeting during study hall on Monday, November 26 to find out more about the team. Practices will run once a week through December and January. Attending the meeting does not mean you have to join, but sign up will take place by the end of November because the roster for the team must be submitted in December. Contact Mrs. Weber at assumption7@nelson-tel.net if you have any questions.
- Enclosed is information regarding hotel stay for the Brains and Brawn tournament.

BOOK FAIR:

Our Scholastic Book Fair starts Friday November 30th at the Durand campus; it runs through December, 7th. Proceeds from our Book Fair help purchase books for both campus libraries.

Book fair items make excellent Christmas gifts.

Some of you may have already received notes from Ms. Dierauer, but we are still in need of some help.

Please contact Ms. Dierauer at assumptionart@nelson-tel.net.

DURAND DAZZLE PARADE:

Thank you to Mrs. Prissel, the 8th grade students and parents for organizing the 8th grade float. I love the idea and I can't wait to see the finished product. Thank you also to Mrs. Bullard and the Middle School band for their hard work preparing for the parade, I hope all will be able to watch and cheer on our Assumption Royals!

MUSIC NOTES:

Jan Spindler has an invitation enclosed for students, asking them to share their musical talents at the Christmas Masses. The flyer has needed details.

HONOR ROLL:

The school year is divided into four quarters each representing approximately a nine-week period. At the close of each grading period, an honor roll is established for students in grades 6-8. Honor Roll presentation was presented after mass on Tuesday. Honor roll eligibility is as follows:
